

Body United - January 15, 2006

All the parts of a body do stuff together. They don't go separate ways. But a body together isn't all we need. The united body needs the breath of life.

One lord, one faith, one baptism – How about one body Of Christ? If there is one Lord, why should He have more than one body? See Eph 4:1-6

- 1 I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,
- 2 With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;
- 3 Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
- 4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;
- 5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,
- 6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

Ps 133:1 (KJV)

Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

Phil 1:27 (KJV)

Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;

1Pet 3:8 (KJV)

Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous:

1Pet 3:9 (KJV)

Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.

Acts 1:14 (KJV)

These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.
